Dear Mr. McKend:

I write this to make you acquainted with an old friend and a very good Painter, Mr. H. C. Saunders. He has been in Europe and is well posted in art and is inclined to send a picture to the Corcoran Gallery.

Yours very truly
Chas. Lawman

Dear Sir.

The statue "Psyche" & pedestal was shipped from Phila on Saturday & will probably arrive in Washington today or Tuesday.

I marked the cases in your care — & from here they went per B.O. R.R.

Please take same in charge upon arrival and place in position in the gallery as soon as possible.

Will you kindly advise me per earliest opportunity — whether I can see you at the Gallery Thursday next (Thanksgiving day) and if so at what hour? I would like to speak to you in relation to the work — and will then liquidate any expenditures you may have had — in connection with placing same —

I make this request for Thursday — as I cannot well arrange to have my business on business days.

Your early reply will oblige

Yours Truly
S. Keyser

To a gentleman in room on the left of main entrance.

I do not know your name but while in Washington last Winter you showed me some most beautiful photographs of Powers' Greek Slave. They were larger than I wanted to go with others I had collected. You thought of having some taken of the next size smaller, and were to let me know. I have heard nothing and fear you may have forgotten the matter, so write this to recall the conversation to your mind.

There is no work of art in marble that I think is beautiful as the Greek Slave, and as I remember your photographs I have never seen a statue taken so effectively

If you have the size I desire, please send word to address below and oblige

Yours Respectfully
Emily H. Allen.

Mr. W. McLeod.

My dear Sir:—

On Friday of last week I sent to Washington my daughter's picture, "The forgotten Toast", carefully boxed and directed to your address. It was intrusted to Westcott's Express of this city, with particular directions that all charges should be prepaid.

To my great mortification I find, on calling at the Express office this morning, that by some strange oversight of the men in charge the box was marked "collect on delivery".

If you <sup>will</sup> have the goodness to excuse this blunder, and inform me in the inclosed envelope what charges were paid on the box, I will forward to you the amount.

Please inform me whether the painting and frame arrived safely. It was carefully packed by an expert in that business, who assured me that all was safe.

Very respectfully,
T. J. Conant.
